J. R. KEENE LEADS WINNING OWNERS

Gathered in $28,450 at the Brighton Meeting.

PAYNE WHITNEY SECOND

He Assimilated $25,050—Artful's Victory in Handicap Worth $21,750. Nicol Got Handsome Present.

NEW YORK, July 31.—By winning the Derby Saturday Synonymy enabled James R. Keene to head the list of winning owners for the Brighton meeting just closed, with a total of $28,450.

So far this year Synonymy has won $93,000 in stakes for Mr. Keene, beginning with $5,550 in his share of the dead heat in the Metropolitan Handicap, followed by $14,550 in the Tidal; $11,535 in the Commonwealth Handicap; $17,035 in the Realization Stakes; $5,550 in the Iroquois Stakes, and $12,000 in Saturday's event. Synonymy has only two engagements at Saratoga, the $50,000 Great Republic, one mile and a quarter, and the $7,500 Saratoga Cup, one mile and six furlongs.

Big Winners.
Harry Payne Whitney stands second to Mr. Keene on the Brighton list, with $25,050. Artful's victory in the Brighton Handicap being worth $21,750. S. S. Brown ranks third, with $18,555, followed by August Belmont, with $15,125. Sydney Payer, with $8,635; T. H. Mitchell, Jr., with $8,500; J. E. Widener and Matthe Corbett, with $6,250 each; P. J. Dwyer, with $6,185; William Lakeland, with $6,000, and other owners above $3,000, as follows: John A. Drake, $4,435; Woodford Clay, $4,085; E. R. Bradley, $4,480; A. L. Aste, $4,080; R. H. McCarter Potter, $4,065; Andrew Miller, $3,610; Fred Johnson, $3,585; G. B. Hill, $3,610; W. H. Snyder, $3,575; E. R. Thomas, $3,365, and T. C. McDowell, $3,210.

Mr. Keene was so well pleased with Nicol's handling in Synonymy in Saturday's race that he presented $10,000 to the boy. "Oddly enough there was a persistent rumor at the track that Synonymy had either gone lame or had broken down completely. How and where the report originated nobody could tell, but it was on the tip of the tongue, and Trainer Rowe was kept busy making repeated denials. Some of the bookmakers heard the canard and were inclined to accept a raft of small bets against the Melton colt, but fought shy of the heavy wagers when they came their way.

DEATH MAY BE RESULT OF CAMPBELL'S FOLLY

Fell Thirty Feet From Scenic Railway After Playing Pranks at Chesapeake Beach.

Little or no hope is entertained by Dr. Lloyd, at the Casualty Hospital, for the recovery of Charles H. Campbell, carpenter, living at 621 E. street northwest, who fell from the scenic railway at Chesapeake Beach last night and sustained a fracture of the jaw, also concussion of the brain. Dr. Lloyd at noon today stated that the man was in a precarious condition.

Persons who saw the accident say Campbell had been riding back and forth on the scenic railway the greater part of the day, and failed to remain quiet in his seat. Shortly after 9 o'clock last night, while a car was going west on the tracks it passed one going east, and Campbell is said to have stood up in the car and reached out to grasp another passenger's hat. He lost his balance, and fell into the shallow water, thirty feet below.

WOMAN JOCKEY RODE WITH MUCH SUCCESS

WORCESTER, Mass., July 31.—It has leaked out that Mrs. Ada Evans Dean, of the Grafton County Club, rode as a jockey in the running races at Liberty, N. Y., taking the place of the regular jockey, who was unable to ride, and saving her colors from defeat. She likewise saved thousands bet on the result.

Not content with this she entered Moorish Dance in the last race of the day and snatched victory from defeat in a wild finish. Mrs. Dean declared that she had never before ridden in a race. Yet, she had defeated the best of the horses and jockeys of the northern New York section. The news was telegraphed to the Grafton County Club and Mrs. Dean was the heroine of the hour. She is the grandniece of Sir Alexander John Bell, once first lord of the British admiralty and governor of Malta.

STUDYING YALE'S FOOTBALL TRICKS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 31.—Yale's football men have heard that W. T. Reid, head coach of the Harvard football eleven, has paid a visit here within a few days to study the Yale system of coaching and conditioning the players, the methods of bandaging knees and legs and caring for injured players in general. This would seem to indicate a disposition at Harvard to pattern football training there after Yale's methods.

MOTHER TOO POOR TO BURY DEAD INFANT

Without medical attention, the three-month-old infant of Sarah Goode, colored, of 628 Second street southwest, died last night. Coroner Nevitt was informed and gave a certificate of death from natural causes.

The mother said she was not able to pay the funeral expenses and the District will have to stand the costs. Morguekeeper Shoenberger will inter the body in the Potter's Field this afternoon.

Prospects Are Bright For National Regatta

High Class Entries for Classic Aquatic Carnival to Be Held at Baltimore—Mulcahy and Varley Return Without Cup.

With practically all the entries for the national regatta to be held at Baltimore on August 11 and 12 in the hands of Secretary Fred Fortmeyer, the indications are that the list of entries will be one of the best in the history of America's big rowing carnival.

Washington's best entry will be the Potomac senior eight, which will go to the mark with the best eight in the country.

The Argonaut Rowing Club, of Toronto, has decided to be represented by an intermediate eight-oared shell crew, by a senior eight-oared shell crew, and possibly by a four-oared crew. St. Louis has made four entries in the four-oared races, and in addition the Mound City will send a couple of pair-oared and several single-oared oarsmen. New Orleans has entered a double-screw crew, a pair-oared, and a single.

Philadelphia will be represented by an eight-oared and an octuple crew, the latter crew for the city against its senior octuple race, the first of its kind ever placed on a regatta program. Long Island will be represented by the crack senior four of the Seawanhaka Boat Club and a pair-oared crew. The Harlem river, among others, will have two senior double crews, Titus and Steinkamp, of the Nonpareil Rowing Club, and Mulcahy and Varley, of the Atlanta Boat Club. All the fast scullers of this vicinity have entered, and include Frederick Shepherd, C. S. Titus, Frank Vesely, Fred Fussell, John Hoben, and David McEntee.

Under the rule entries bearing postal date of July 28 are eligible, and Secretary Fortmeyer expressed the belief yesterday that by today several other rowing cities will be heard from. Among the St. Louis clubs that have entered crews are the Century, Western, Northeast, and Mound City. One of the Century crews is the four which won last year's championship. Ernest J. Hess will represent the club in the intermediate single sculls, and Herman Kirtman will be in the same class and race for the Northeast Rowing Club, of St. Louis. The Mound City Club will send an intermediate four, and William H. Fesse and Frank M. Lansing will carry the Century colors in the pair-oared event, as will A. Boeber and G. Wolff, for the Western club. The New Orleans double will consist of the Independent Rowing Club. Altogether it looks as if the regatta will be a great success.

John J. F. Mulcahy and William M. Varley, the Atlanta Boat Club oarsmen, who won the double sculls championship in the Royal International regatta at Hamburg, a short time ago, returned to this country yesterday on the stamship Blucher. The oarsmen, who earned the Kaiser's cup, emblematic of the world's championship, received a welcome, which for size and enthusiasm would have been hard to equal. A big gathering made up of fellow-club members of the Oarsmen's club and representatives from all the Harlem crews and the Long Island Regatta Association, went over to Hoboken in a tug, made the pier ring with cheers, and then bore away the two young men for a trip up the Hudson and on the Harlem, where the oarsmen of all the clubs ran out on the floats and cheered as the tug passed. It was one continuous cheer and dipping of flags all the way down Sculler's Row.

Only the bare fact that they had won had been cabled to the country, and their Atlanta Rowing Club clubmates heard for the first time how the regatta officials withheld the trophy because of another pair's foul. Just as they were stalling they were informed that the cup would follow on the next steamer.

The octuple crew which is to represent Philadelphia at the national regatta rowed yesterday in the following order: Roll, Vesper, bow; Gleason, Vesper, 2; Lockwood, Vesper, 3; J. Kirk, Vesper, 4; L. Johnson, Jr., University, Barge Club, 5; P. Kirk, Crescent, 6; J. Bond, Jr., stroke, and Abell, Vesper, coxswain.

This crew, however, is not by any means permanently settled. A number of other good oarsmen around the squad trying for positions, and the final makeup of the boat may differ greatly from that of yesterday.

The other men trying for positions are Jesse Williamson, second, and W. Morris, of the University Barge Club; Clement Wood, the vice commodore of the Schuylkill navy; Williams and Rivinus, of the Philadelphia Barge Club; and Myers, of the Bachelors.

The crew practiced every day during the last week, and will do the same this week. The eight men will probably be picked before next Sunday.

Boston has not yet decided to enter a crew. The movement is under way there, but it is hardly likely that the crew can get together in time.

In its tryout yesterday the New York octuple was manned as follows:

Row, R. H. Jackson, Palsade, 2; F. Fussell, Harlem, 3; R. H. Titus, Nassau B. C., 4; W. M. Mehrhoff, Nassau B. C., 5; John G. Hoben, Ravenswood B. C., 6; F. Vesely, Bohemian B. C., 7; F. Shepherd, Seawanhaka B. C., stroke, C. S. Titus, Nonpareil B. C. The substitutes include Mulcahy and Varley of the Atlanta, Smythe and Thompson of the New York Athletic Club, A. McEntee, Waverly B. C., and Jack Nagle, Harlem R. C. The crew rowed nine miles.

Coach Murray Russell has resigned his position as coach for the Atlanta Boat Club, of Baltimore, and the club has secured the services of Richard Gleason, who coached the Naval Academy crews for the last two seasons.

The Arundels will enter three crews in the National—an intermediate eight, a four and a single. Wallace Kline will represent the Arundels in the singles.

The Arundels, of Baltimore, will make four entries in the National regatta. These will be the intermediate and senior eights and the intermediate and senior fours.

In a signed article James A. Ten Eyck, the Syracuse coach, says:

"The defeat of my varsity and freshman crews this year will not cause me to change my opinion. I am satisfied that I know good rowing when I see it, and the fact that the Cornell crew evidently got the best of us was such a decided increase in the number of strokes as rowed from that of the 1904 crew that it seems strange that it should have escaped the notice of some wise ones, who usually comment on such matters. However, the change was evidently for the best, and as we are all looking for the same goal, there will be something doing on the Hudson in years to come."

MULCAHY AND VARLEY
BACK MINUS CUP

NEW YORK, July 31.—Jack Mulcahy and Bill Varley, winners of the Kaisers cup for double sculls, which is emblematic of the world's championship, are back home, but without the trophy that they won at the recent Hamburg regatta. The prize will be sent over on the next steamer that leaves for America.

Mulcahy and Varley have each put on weight, and are in excellent condition for the coming national regatta.

Union, S. C.

I had a severe attack of La Grippe, which left me almost a physical wreck. To add to my wretched condition, Rheumatism developed. In a short time after beginning S. S. S. I was relieved of the pains and have gained in flesh and strength and my general health is better than for years. I heartily recommend S. S. S. for all blood diseases.

SUGGEST POWERS FOR PRESIDENT

Rumored He May Get Pulliam's Job.

DREYFUSS KNOWS NOTHING

PITTSBURG, July 31.—Pat Powers, according to a report emanating from a reliable National League source, is the next president of the National League, to succeed Harry Pulliam.

Powers is now president of the Eastern League, and since Pulliam has been getting into difficulties with the magnates of certain National League clubs and players, a president is being sought. It is believed that when Pulliam sent out his letter of last Thursday night, opening up on President Dreyfuss, of the Pittsburgh club, that he had his fences built for re-election to the presidency, but this is denied.

Dreyfuss said that he knew nothing of the Powers boom, and when he was asked whether he would be for or opposed to Pulliam, said he had not given the matter a moment's thought. Conceding Powers, Dreyfuss said that the former has about all the troubles he can handle in looking after the affairs of the Eastern League, and that he is lucky to hold his job in that organization.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Bob Fitzsimmons came to town last night on the American liner St. Paul.

With him was Mrs. Bob, looking beautiful in a black net dress and picture hat. There were also seven trunks, four bags, two French poodles and little Miss Fitzsimmons. When the gangplank dropped Bob raced to be first ashore against Mrs. Thomas C. Platt, for whom the Senator was waiting on the wharf.

"Been in France," said Bob, as he struggled with two bags and two poodles. "Paris, Sent Mrs. Fitzsimmons over to study for a year. She's a good actress, but she wants to be better. Then I got so bloomin' lonesome I couldn't stand it, so I packed up and goes over and brings her back. A year's dramatic lessons, years' lease of an apartment—all gone to h—l."

"She's going back, though, and I'm going with her. We'll take my show on the road this year, and next summer we'll go over for a year. Like Paris? Say, it's the only place!"

"Of course, I won't fight over there, because there ain't no fighting there, but while I'm here I'm open to any good man."

HIS DIFFICULT INTERVIEW

ONE CLUB QUILTS ALREADY

MAY RESULT IN CLOSING UP
SARATOGA.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 31.—Before the shutters which had darkened the windows in the gambling places these two years back had been removed, in prospect of the season at hand, the gamblers themselves were at war.

Today the Chicago Club announced through its manager, James Kennedy, that its directors had decided not to open tonight. A car carrying paraphernalia shipped from New York ten days ago, and which had been partially unloaded, was refilled with roulette tables, faro bank outfits, and general gaming fixtures on Saturday, and consigned to parties at Mt. Clemens, Mich.

Only a Flash.

"We understand the opening of the game at Canfield's and Uman & Mack's is just a flash, and that before long they too will close down," declares a close friend of Kennedy.

Persons close to sources of reliable information say bickering among the gambling house proprietors and two factions are responsible for a state of affairs which may result in another shutdown for Saratoga's numerous houses.

The Wind Up Before Stocktaking

Clothing is quoted at from one-third to one-half off regular prices

WE take stock now in a few days. There's too much stock here. Strenuous efforts will be made to get out every garment, and every price inducement will be offered in order to effect a sale.

We've never held such a sale as this before, but circumstances have combined in a way to force us to accept less for Parker-Bridget Clothing than it has ever before been quoted.

There are still two good months left for service from these clothes this season, then there's another season ahead for them, for they're far enough in advance of style to make them acceptable to the most particular dresser.

Make it a point to see the garments in this sale—study the values, pay half price, or a third under regular price, as the case may be. We promise you the best clothing bargain you've ever bought.

Remember, it's Parker-Bridget regular stock clothing we're offering. You can depend on it for style, for quality, for value beyond any other clothing on this market.

Suits at Half Price
A collection of about 350 of the best TWO-PIECE SUITS shown this season—garments that illustrate well the art that is displayed in planning and making Parker-Bridget Clothing. Just half former prices.

Suits Reduced ONE-THIRD
Sack Suits in blue and black serge, as well as fancy mixtures. They're all three-piece suits, whose merits of style and quality place them in the front rank among specimens of the finest clothing making.
